Colorado State University Legends of Ranching
Futurity and Maturity Horse Show
April 22, 2016 @ CSU Equine Center

Please Note: The Colorado State University (CSU) Legends of Ranching Futurity and Maturity Horse Show is ONLY open to horses that have been sold in the CSU Legends of Ranching Performance Horse Sale. See specific eligibility rules for Futurity and Maturity Programs below.

General Rules

1. There will be two divisions: Non Pro and Open. To be eligible for the Non Pro division, an exhibitor must not have earned more than 10 points and/or $1000 in any association including but not limited to AQHA, NRCHA, NCHA, RHAA, NRHA and/or ASHA. An exhibitor may compete in one or both divisions if eligible. There will be two classes within each division: Ranch Riding and Cowhorse. An exhibitor may also compete in one or both classes within a division but must compete in both to be eligible for composite awards.

2. $10000 purse + 30% of jackpotted money – money will be paid 3 places in each division as follows:

3. A breed transfer of a horse does not prove ownership; a copy of the breed registration certificate MUST accompany the entry form.

4. Horses entered in the "non-pro" division must be shown by their owner.

5. Horses entered in the "open" division do not need to be shown by the owner, however each open exhibitor is limited to show a maximum of 2 horses and the same exhibitor must show the same horse in both parts of the competition.

6. The top 3 places in each class in each division only will be money earning. Other prizes will be awarded for the winners of each class and the composite within each division.

7. There will be an entry fee paid by the contestant (see entry form).

8. All entry forms must be completed in full. Early entry deadline is February 1 or after March 15 date.

9. All rules are subject to change.

10. A limited number of stalls will be available beginning Thursday April 21st at noon. One stall charge will apply and stalls must be vacated by noon on Sunday April 24th. Shavings are on your own.
Futurity Rules

1. This competition is ONLY for 3 or 4 year old horses that were trained in the Colorado State University (CSU) Colt Training Class and sold in the Legends of Ranching Sale (LOR) the previous calendar year. For example, horses who went through the CSU training program in 2014-2015 and sold in the 2015 LOR sale are eligible for the 2016 Futurity.

2. The competition will consist of a Ranch Riding pattern (50%) and a Working Cow Horse Pattern (50%). The competition will follow AQHA rules regarding both classes unless otherwise specified below.

3. A horse’s eligibility can transfer ownership from the time of the sale but ownership can not transfer back to the original seller (consignor) or anyone in their immediate family.

Maturity Rules

1. Any horse sold in any previous years LOR sale is eligible for the Maturity with the exception of Futurity eligible horses from the previous year that were part of the CSU Colt Training Program (see Futurity Rules).

Class Rules:

1. Ranch Riding – will follow AQHA rules and utilize one of the currently approved ranch riding patterns.

2. Working Cow Horse – will also follow AQHA rules and guidelines. However, in the Non Pro Division, exhibitors will be asked to complete ONLY the dry work pattern followed by box only cow work. Open cow horse exhibitors will be required to complete both the dry work and the full cow work according to AQHA rules.
   a. In the Open Maturity Cow Horse class, the exhibitor will have the option to either circle at the end of the cow work portion or rope and alter the path of the cow (2 loop maximum).
   b. In the Open Futurity Cow Horse Class, the exhibitor will have the option to either circle at the end of the cow work portion or breakaway rope a cow (2 loop maximum).
