
EQUINE GENETICS SHORT COURSE 2016

Understanding genetics – using them for better breeding decisions

November 12th and 13th 2016

Animal Sciences Building at Colorado State University

Registration limited to 15 participants – Cost $175/person

Planned topics include:

- Review of basic equine genetics
- Building the horse gene map
- Gene-based physiology and disease
- Inheritance, selection and genetic improvement
- Current and future research @ CSU

For more information or registration details contact:

Stephen Coleman

(970) 491-2681 or stephen.coleman@colostate.edu

or

Jason Bruemmer

(970) 491-8373 or jason.bruemmer@colostate.edu

