Equine Sciences
Colorado State University
Dear Friends,

After 30-years of serving our agriculture and equestrian industry, it is great to be back at Colorado State University serving a different purpose as Director of Equine Sciences and Wagonhound Land and Livestock Chair. I am grateful for the opportunity to partner with a dedicated team of researchers and instructors in educating and preparing CSU students to be the future leaders of our $122 Billion equine industry.

This year represents the 16th Legends of Ranching (LOR) Horse sale. The LOR program is just as relevant today as it was when Dr. Jim Heird founded the program in 2004 - to provide a real-world firsthand experience in starting groundwork, training, eventually riding, and prepping young colts for sale. Our consignors have entrusted to us colts that represent years of great breeding and horsemanship. We are so proud that our students can gain experience on such high-quality young horses. Many of our students may not pursue a horse training career, but that has never been the goal. What they gain is confidence, leadership, and an appreciation for the basic understanding of the time and patience it takes to bring about attributes in a horse that enhance their potential value for our western horse industry.

Dr. Heird once said, “We’re not just starting colts, we’re starting students.”
The Legends of Ranching program brings a business element to the experience as well. Students participating in the ANEQ 359 Sales and Marketing class operate like a business team exposed to the fundamentals of communication, promotion, advertising, customer care, social media communication, event planning and an understanding of how pedigree can help predict future performance and horse value. They have consulted with marketing experts from the Equine Network on social media and communication promotion. They have worked with sales associate Dena Milner, a renowned equine sales manager who has supported sale catalog creation for entities like the Four Sixes and Triangle Sales.

A special thank you goes out to Art and Catherine Nicholas, owners of Wagonhound Land and Livestock, who for many years have supported the student competition through scholarship awards. We are also grateful to Purina for not only supplying a nice set of colts, but for also sponsoring the feed for this year’s program.

This unique student focused program would not have been possible without the forethought and dedication of people like Dr. Jim Heird, past Director Dr. Jerry Black, and the instructors that have spent countless hours of teaching and coaching our students in the best practices of colt starting and business development. People like Bobby Walton, John Snyder, and this year, Mike Brashear, as well as many other faculty, guest instructors and supporting staff that have helped over the years. They have enhanced our young people’s character through the development of confidence, responsibility, integrity, and leadership.

Thank you all so much for attending. We are grateful for your support!

Bar Rock-N-Bean Quarter Horses is located near Eaton, Colorado, and was established by Todd and Kristen Bean. Todd, an alumnus of Colorado State University, attended and played football from 1987 to 1991 and has kept ties with CSU over the years. Particularly the Beans have participated in the Legends of Ranching Sale annually and have been overly impressed with the quality of consignments as well as the teamwork of the students in the Equine Science Program.

The Bar Rock-N-Bean breeding program is built on the foundation of prolific sires such as AQHA Super Horse Real Gun, and NCHA and NRCHA All-Time Leading Sires Playgun and Peptoboonsmal. The daughters and granddaughters of these superior stallions were selected for the breeding operation because they offer great minds, good bone, and sound feet. The ranch’s goal is to produce well-minded, athletic, and versatile horses that can excel in a variety of performance disciplines and environments.

The ranch’s consignment this year is sired by Quail Hunter, aka “Hooch”. Bred by the Four Sixes Ranch, the gray son of Paddys Irish Whiskey is out of one of Harry Haythorn’s outstanding mares. The stallion was purchased by Todd and Kristen Bean in 2008 and has made substantial contributions to the Bar Rock-N-Bean program with his size, conformation, and incredible disposition. Currently owned by Haythorn Ranch, both ranches look forward to foals from this sire in the future.

Thank you for your interest in the Bar Rock-N-Bean consignments and for supporting CSU.
Nestled in the Western Sandhills of Nebraska, BOXO Quarter Horses is owned and operated by Cash and Jecca Ostrander, who are dedicated to breeding and raising honest work horses that can excel in both the show pen and out on the ranch.

The Ostrander family at Willow Creek Ranch laid down roots in the area back in the 1880s and are fourth and fifth generation ranchers. Both Cash and Jecca live within 50 miles of their birthplace, and these strong ties to the land are evident every day in the Angus cows and quality Quarter Horses they produce. The couple have three children, one of whom, Stetson, still lives and works on the ranch with his wife Courtney and daughter Tenley and son Jensen. BOXO Quarter Horses have been a part of the AQHA Ranching Heritage Program since it was established in 2011 and support the program as a donor to the AQHA Ranching Heritage Youth Horse Development Program. In 2016 BOXO was awarded the inaugural AQHA Ranching Heritage Breeder of the Year Award.

BOXO’s resident sire, SNW Heavens King, purchased in 2004 from Stan and Nancy Weaver, is the cornerstone of the breeding program. More notably is 2018 AQHA World Champion Junior Working Cow Horse, Opus Cat Olena (WR This Cats Smart x Opus Chic x Smart Chic Olena), the earner of $160,233. New to the BOXO stallion line-up is BOXO Catman Sparks. (Cat Man Do X Starzans Sweet Angel).

Thank you for your interest in the BOXO Quarter Horses consignments and for supporting CSU.
In 1968, William “Billy” S. Morris III of Augusta, Georgia, acquired Creek Plantation, comprising of 2526 acres of timberlands and open field used for agriculture. The acquisition offered Morris the opportunity to pursue a lifelong interest in quarter horses and to launch a first-rate breeding program. Over the years, the operation expanded to nearly 14,000 acres and encompasses three commercial enterprises: horses, cattle, and timber.

In the mid-1970s, Morris became interested in the sport of cutting and not only was instrumental in founding the Augusta Futurity but expanded his breeding program that went on to produce numerous NCHA winners, including Splash of Gin, Wheeling Peppy, Miss Smooth Splash, Judge Tanquery, Shes Pretty Smooth, and Gincoe among others.

Morris’ agricultural interests are not limited to horses, he also has built a commercial cattle operation, consisting of approximately 2200 commercial cows, as well as a herd of registered Texas Longhorns.

As the chairman of Morris communications, Morris is intimately familiar with the western lifestyle as the company is the publisher of multiple magazines including Western Horseman, Barrel Horse News, and Equine Journal, as well as produces Road to the Horse and manages the Hippodrome in South Carolina. Passionate about the industry, he has contributed much to the equine industry and across many disciplines.

Thank you for your interest in the Creek Plantation consignments and for supporting CSU.
Four Sixes Ranch is part of the famous Burnett Ranches LLC, which is among the most storied family-run businesses in Texas history. Founded by Captain Samuel “Burk” Burnett in 1870 when he purchased 100 head of cattle wearing the “6666” brand from Frank Crowley of Denton, Texas. Burnett Ranches today encompasses 260,000 acres including the Four Sixes Ranch headquarters, near Guthrie, and the Dixon Creek Ranch, between Panhandle and Borger—both located in the western half of the state.

Legendary Quarter Horses and Superior Angus Cattle are hallmarks of the “Four Sixes”. The ranch not only offers state-of-the-art reproductive services and full range of equine veterinary services but stands to the public some of the most well-respected Quarter Horse stallions in the industry. The ranch’s elite broodmare band produce some of the best race, ranch, and performance horses available anywhere and helped the ranch be recognized with AQHA Best Remuda Award, and as an AQHA All-Time Leading Breeder of Performance Horses, Race Money-Earners and Winners.

As a commercial cow/calf operation, the high quality of Four Sixes cattle is well known, an that reputation continues today, making the ranch a front runner in the cattle industry. Preservation and stewardship of the land have always been a priority for the ranch they it was recognized with the 2015 Environmental Stewardship Award Region IV.

Thank you for your interest in the Four Sixes Ranch consignments and for supporting CSU.
Haythorn Ranch Company is located in the sandhills of Nebraska along the Platte River Valley, near the town of Maxwell. It is comprised of 20,000 acres of grass, meadow hay, and sweet water from the Ogallala Aquifer and is primarily a cow-calf operation, running up to 1,500 head.

They Haythorn Legacy began more than 135 years ago when a 16-year-old Harry Haythornthwaite, later shortened to Haythorn, stowed away on a ship bound for the US and when discovered was forced to pay for his passage by taking care of some white-faced bulls headed for Galveston, Texas. Upon arrival, he was hired by the man who imported the bulls and for the next eight years learned what it took to be a cowboy. He made multiple trips up the Texas trail where he found the Great Plains to his liking and opened a livery stable in Ogallala, Nebraska and later married Emma Gilpin. The couple filed on a land grant section four miles east of Arthur, Nebraska, and an American ranching dynasty was born.

Entering its 6th generation of traditional ranching, the Haythorn Ranch Company has been breeding American Quarter Horses since before the registry’s inception in 1940. Currently the ranch pasture breeds 15 to 25 mares a year and runs 20 to 40 saddle horses in their remuda, which are required to have good bones and feet, plenty of muscle, a kind disposition with lots of cow sense. Their horses are versatile and can be used by a wide variety of people for anything that can be done horseback.

Iron Springs Ranch, a division of Hall Ranches, encompasses a large area in southeast Colorado, as well as across the Comanche Grasslands and is rich in history and artifacts as the Santa Fe Trail runs across the ranch. Gary and Havilah Hall purchased the Iron Springs Ranch division of the Hall Ranches in 2002 and are continuing the western heritage of the Hall family.

The Halls, and their 6 children, are the fourth and fifth generations to own and manage the Hall Ranches. Not only does the ranch run cow-calf pairs year-round but also breed quality, well-rounded American Quarter Horses for ranch and performance use. Their select horses are raised on grasslands, canyons, rocks, and very diverse landscapes. They are ridden many miles to gather and move cattle. The horses gain lots of experience and time under saddle, producing well rounded and good travelling horses. Daily, the ranch’s remuda is used to sort, brand, rope, doctor and wean cattle. In addition, they have also proven themselves in the arena for roping, versatility ranch, cow horse and timed events.

The Iron Springs Ranch stands their Bet Hes Gunna Do It gray stallion out of Bet Hesa Cat and Playgun lines, who sires their performance horses. Their mares’ lines of industry greats include: Peptoboonsmal, Shining Spark, Smart Little Lena, and Dual Rey.

Gary and Havilah Hall are both CSU Alumni and proud supporters of the Legends of Ranching Program and Sale.

Paint Rock Canyon Enterprises began on one of Wyoming’s most notable ranches, The Hyatt Ranch, running Angus cattle in high desert and Forest Service pastures in the western foothills of the Big Horn mountains much like the founder, Sam Hyatt once did.

After adding a farm and ranch intern program and a summer camp program for economically disadvantaged youth, a need for ranch raised horses arose and the ranch’s AQHA breeding program was born. PRCE focuses on raising athletic, versatile horses with willing dispositions.

2021 brought many changes after selling the ranch and moving the horse breeding and training program to Texas. Although on a much smaller footprint, we are still raising the same horses for ranch, roping, performance and all-around use. Find us on Facebook under One Broken Heart Quarter Horses.

The Rob A. Brown Ranch, based in Stinnett, Texas, is entirely family owned and operated. Rob A. Brown and his wife, Talley, have been raising American Quarter Horses and commercial Angus beef cattle for almost 40 years. They, along with their 7 children, 3 daughters-in-law, and 5 grandchildren share in operating ranches that span six Texas counties.

The Brown family has a long history of involvement in the American Quarter Horse Association. Rob A. Brown’s grandfather, R.A. Brown Sr., is credited as being one of the founders of the association. Rob A.’s father, R.A. Brown Jr., served as president in 1995. Both were inducted into the AQHA Hall of Fame, becoming only the second father and son duo to share this honor.

Rob A. Brown is currently an AQHA director. He was instrumental in creating the Ranching Heritage Program and works diligently to highlight the importance of maintaining the working ranch horse. Rob A. has spent his life perfecting his own horse breeding program, which is primarily aimed at producing and developing horses who are successful in the performance industry while remaining a valuable and fundamental part of ranch work. The Rob A. Brown Ranch has produced home raised and trained horses who have racked up many earnings being shown by the Brown family in the AQHA and the NRCHA.

Saunders Ranch was established in 1934 just west of Fort Worth in Parker County. Tom Bailey Saunders, a descendant of the prominent Saunders family whom came to Texas in 1850 and established prosperous cattle commission companies in Ft. Worth, San Antonio, and Houston, Texas. They put together additional holdings that are now known as Twin V Ranch and Saunders Cattle Company in Parker County, Texas.

Tom Bailey III was a founding member and past president of the National Cutting Horse Association. His son-in-law, Jim Calhoun, owned, rode, and trained the first World Champion cutting horse stallion, Kings Pistol, in 1957. This line has produced industry leading sires such as Playgun, Smart Little Pistol, and Cat Silver, and have provided a cornerstone for the Saunders remuda’s maternal lineage.

Thomas Bailey Saunders V, operates a cow-calf and equine business out of the ranch today and continues to implement similar breeding practices within the horse herd of more than 25 head of registered American Quarter Horses. Saunders, who is well versed in a variety of horsemanship practices, started cutting and ranch horses for ranches in Texas, New Mexico, Oklahoma, and California, served as boss wrangler of the Ray Hunt tribute as well as on set for multiple movies and productions. Thomas Bailey Saunders V has worked side-by-side with Chris Cox, Craig Cameron, and Martin Black. The sixth-generation cowboy enjoys passing that knowledge on to the students of the Legends of Ranching Program.

“Building ranch traditions for tomorrow’s generations”, Silver Spur Ranches has operations in Wyoming, Colorado, New Mexico, and Nebraska. The headquarters of the ranch is located in Encampment, Wyoming while the remuda is located on the TO and Bell Ranches in New Mexico. Silver Spur Ranches is one of the largest commercial cow-calf operations in the US and is home to registered Angus, Red Angus, and Charolais cattle.

Silver Spur’s horse program is centered on breeding good-sized, strong, and athletic horses with good minds who can go from the arena to everyday ranching with ease and can do everything from National Reined Cow Horse (NRCHA) events to roping a bull and doctoring calves. Mares are used on the ranch and in the show pen before selection into the broodmare band and their foals are then raised and started at the TO and Bell Ranches before distribution to the other Silver Spur divisions.

Currently standing for Silver Spur at the historic Four Sixes Ranch is Metallic Masterpiece, aka “Quasi”, who has had an impressive show record with 6 championships or reserve championships, earning $74,000.

Honored with the 2017 AQHA’s Best Remuda Award, Silver Spur Ranches strive to raise cattle and horses of the highest caliber while working diligently to pass on the values, faith, importance of family and love for agriculture to future generations.

Thank you for your interest in the Silver Spur Ranches consignment and for supporting CSU.
“Take care of the land, and it will in turn take care of the people who work it”, is the philosophy of Singleton Ranches, which is among the top five ranching operations in the United States and were the 2012 AQHA Best of the Remuda award recipients. The ranch was started and built off the intense variety of terrain in central New Mexico, and now runs the largest cow-calf operation in the state.

In order to navigate rough country, big boned, sturdy horses that their cow-boys can depend on are invaluable to the ranch. Their young ranch bred horses are expected to gather, sort, and drag calves to the branding fire, while a select few are fitted and directed to the show pen.

Singleton Ranches carefully selects their horses to have superior cow sense, which can be seen in the stallions who laid the foundation for their breeding program including two-time AQHA High Point Junior Cutting Champion and Superior Cutting Horse Dual With Me (Dual Pep, an All-Time Leading Cutting Sire with performers earning more than $24,000,000, and out of Cow Struck, the producer of $495,560 with foals averaging $55,000); Timbercat 101 (Docs Hickory, an All-time Leading Cutting and Reined Cow Horse Sire); SCR Thunder Crackin (Metallic Cat x Smart Crackin Chic, the 2006 NRCHA Snaffle Bit Futurity champion).

Spur Cross Ranch, located in Gallatin Gateway, Montana just outside of Bozeman, is the home of Ingram Quarter Horses. For over 31 years they have bred, raised, and trained quality American Quarter Horses. The ranch currently stands their 2022 Riata Buckle red roan stallion Peptoes, whose sire, Peptoboonsmal, is an NCHA and NRCHA All Time Leading Sire with performers earning more than $27,000,000. He is out of a daughter of the great Doc O’ Lena, an NCHA Futurity Champion and Champion Sire, sire of NCHA’s first Triple Crown Winner Smart Little Lena as well as other greats Tanquery Gin, Shorty Lena, Mr Sun O Lena, etc.

Broodmares are selected for Spur Cross Ranch’s remuda, not only by genetics, but for conformation, disposition, color, and overall looks. Spur Cross Ranch is very selective about what they cross their mares to and like to keep their program diverse by breeding to stallions throughout the industry from racing, and barrel racing to western performance such as Bodacious Dash, One Famous Eagle, Hez Our Secret, A Streak of Fling, Prime Talent, A Smooth Guy, and PC Frenchmans Hayday, Sophisticated Catt, Catty Hawk, Dual Smart Rey, and Reys Dual Badger, just to name a few. Horses wearing the Spur Cross brand are designed to be versatile and have had success in reining, cutting, show and speed horse events.

T-Heart Ranch, founded by Shane and Beth Temple in 1993, is located near Del Norte, Colorado in the beautiful San Luis Valley. A family business, the ranch has grown from 30 head of cattle on rented land to a thriving business with around 1,400 head of registered Sim Angus and Simmental cattle. The T-Heart Ranch program focuses on producing high-quality, altitude-adapted cattle for their customers across the country. With a ranch ranging from 8,000-12,000 feet in elevation, the Temple family is no stranger to Brisket disease, and have worked hard to create a successful high-altitude breeding program for their customers.

The American Quarter Horse breeding program is relatively new to T-Heart Ranch, but their commitment to excellence remains consistent in this division of the operation. Presently running a broodmare band of 10 accomplished National Cutting Horse Association and National Reined Cow Horse Association broodmares and selectively crossing these elite individuals to industry-leading sires is the heart of the program. T-Heart Ranch’s home-breds are utilized in all phases of ranch work and are expected to be work horses first, however due to the quality genetics, they have also gone on to perform in cutting and cow horse events.

T-Heart Ranch is a proud supporter of Colorado State University Equine Sciences and the Legends of Ranching program.

All horses consigned to the sale are offered in accordance with the laws of the State of Colorado and all transactions between Buyer, Seller and the Auctioneer are governed by the laws of the State of Colorado. Sellers are hereby bound by the Consignment Agreement completed upon nomination of sale entry, as well as these Conditions of Sale.

NO 2 BIDDING PROCEDURE

The right to bid or repurchase a horse is reserved by the Seller or his representative. Title of the horse passes to the Buyer automatically at the final fall of the Auctioneer’s gavel, unless such repurchase is clearly indicated immediately by the Seller, his representative, or the Auctioneer. The highest bidder shall become the Buyer. Any successful bidder shall sign a Buyer’s Acknowledgment of Purchase that shall be presented by an auction clerk immediately after the purchase has been made. The Auctioneer reserves the right to reject any and all bids.

NO 3 ONLINE BIDDING

As a courtesy, if you are an approved buyer and unable to attend in person and cannot find an agent to represent you at the sale, you may bid on-line through DVAuction. CSU cannot guarantee your on-line bid will be represented.

NO 4 BIDDING DISPUTES

If a dispute should arise between or among two or more bidders, the Auctioneer shall settle the dispute, and his decision shall be absolute, final, and binding on all parties. In such a case, the Auctioneer has the right, but not the obligation, to reopen the bid and ask for advance bids, solely between the bidders having claimed the last bid. If there is no advance bid, the horse shall be sold to the bidder from whom the Auctioneer recognized the final bid. If for any reason the bid should be reduced below the recognized bid at the beginning of such a dispute, the Auctioneer may reopen the bidding to all bidders with the highest bidder becoming the Buyer regardless of whether or not the final bid exceeds the bid which was originally disputed.

NO 5 TITLE AND DELIVERY

Title passes to the Buyer automatically at the final fall of the Auctioneer’s gavel unless a repurchase is made by the Seller, his representative, or the Auctioneer on the Seller’s behalf. At such time, the Buyer assumes all risk of loss and the responsibility, maintenance, care and

Upon the passage of title, the Buyer agrees to indemnify and hold the Auctioneer, any representative thereof, or consultants for harmless from all loss, cost and expense including but not limited to: (a) the illness, injury or death of purchased horse, or (b) loss or damage to property, and (c) injury or death of persons caused by the Buyer, his agents, employees or the purchased horse. Title and all risks are assumed by the Buyer whether or not delivery has been made. Delivery of a purchased horse shall be contingent upon the Buyer making a full settlement to the sale cashier as described in Condition No. 5. After a satisfactory settlement is made, delivery will be in the form of a release for the horse from the auction grounds. In addition to the release, the Buyer will receive the current Coggins test, proof of a current health inspection, and a copy of the registration certificate.

No 6 Settlement

Upon default, any horse purchased by the Buyer may be resold by Auctioneer for the Seller and all costs associated with such resale shall be borne by the defaulting Buyer. Should such a resale fail to satisfy in full the balance due, the Buyer shall immediately pay Auctioneer the amount of the balance owing. The American Quarter Horse Association is committed to the promotion of the ranch horse. The Ranching Heritage Breeders program helps ranchers market their ranch-bred American Quarter Horses through opportunities like the Ranching Heritage Challenges, exclusive competitions for ranch-bred horses.

The horses that come from Ranching Heritage Breeders uphold the tradition and heritage of the working cattle ranch, and when horses are purchased from a Ranching Heritage Breeder, that great tradition continues.
